Year 7	Worldviews c.1000	Norman Conquest & Control	Religion in the Middle Ages:	The Mali Empire:	Challenge to Medieval Monarchs:	Renaissance:
Development of the Church, state & society 1066-1509 Students will investigate the above themes through each of the units. Each unit is broken down into enquiry questions which students will answer. Each lesson feeds into an enquiry question.	 What does Medieval Baghdad reveal about the Muslim world? What does the story of Foy reveal about the medieval Western Christian world? This unit allows students to explore how connected the world was in 1000. This explored through the diversity and vastness of the Christian and Islamic worlds, and the spread of knowledge and ideas. This unit immediately challenges a Eurocentric view of the world by considering their achievements relative to the West. This unit introduces ideas of empire, religion, culture, and 	 Control Why did William win the Battle of Hastings? How did William the Conqueror establish Norman control over England? Students will learn about conquest and methods of control that were used, looking at the strengths and weaknesses and creating the foundations of power which will be challenged over the course of KS3. 	Ages: 1. How significant was the church in medieval England? 2. What was the greatest impact of the Crusades? This unit will introduce the role of Church and its hierarchy, concepts such as pilgrimage, persecution, and Holy war. It revisits the broad area of the Middle East in the crusade lessons.	 What does the life of Mansa Musa reveal about Medieval Mali? This unit provides an opportunity to understand the medieval period beyond the borders of England. The unit is important for students to identify that there were powerful empires and leaders beyond Europe and the Catholic Church and to give students a grounding in precolonial African history. Ideas such as trade, architecture, wealth, and religion are returned to in order to make sense of the place and period. 	 Wonarchs: 1. Who was responsible for the murder of Thomas Becket? 2. Who posed the greatest threat to medieval monarchs? This is an overview breadth unit covering the later medieval period and unpicking the key historical concept of monarchy and the major challenges to this institution in this period. Students will develop a more nuanced understanding of the power of the monarch, that he did not necessarily wield absolute power. Important ideas are introduced around separation of powers, role of a parliament. 	 Was the Renaissance a Revolution in thinking? This topic expands students' contextual knowledge of Europe and provides a bridge from the medieval period to the early modern period of the Tudors and Reformation studied in year 8. The unit touches on the way Europe came through its dark ages to rediscover learning and science, looking past the controlling dogma of the Church. Conceptually, students will touch on ideas of medicine, empire, trade, and colonisation.
