Elizabethan England c1568-1603 Knowledge outcomes

| Name:  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|--------|--|--|--|--|--|--|
|        |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|        |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Class: |  |  |  |  |  |  |

| Knowledge outcomes: Elizabethan England – Elizabeth and her government |  |  |    |   |  |
|--|--|--|----|---|--|
| 1  | What was Henry VIII's 'Great Matter'?  | Desire to divorce Catherine of Aragon to marry Anne Boleyn | 16 | Which trusted councillor died in 1598?  | William Cecil  |
| 2  | Who was Elizabeth's mother?  | Anne Boleyn  | 17 | Who led a rebellion against Elizabeth in 1601?  | Essex (Robert Devereux –Dudley's step-son)             |
| 3  | Name Elizabeth's two siblings  | Mary (I) and Edward (VI)                                   | 18 | Who was Essex jealous of in Elizabeth's latter years?                                       | Robert Cecil (William's son) who was gaining power         |
| 4  | What years did Elizabeth reign?  | 1558 - 1603  | 19 | Which rebellion did Essex fail to defeat?   | Tyrone's Rebellion in Ireland.                             |
| 5  | Which element of royal government was located where the Queen was?           | The Court  | 20 | What were the two main aims of the rebellion in 1601?                                       | Fall of Robert Cecil; nameJames VI successor.          |
| 6  | What were Elizabeth's summer journeys called?                                | Progresses   | 21 | Who wrote The First Blast of Trumpet Against the Monstrous Regiment of Women? (1558)        | John Knox – a ScottishProtestant.                      |
| 7  | What was the system of duties and rewards whereby Elizabeth ensured loyalty? | Patronage  | 22 | Who were Elizabeth's potential suitors?   | Eric XIV of Sweden, Philip IIof Spain, Dudley, Alencon |
| 8  | Which courtier was Elizabeth's chief advisor for most of her reign?          | William Cecil  | 23 | Who did Elizabeth choose to marry?  | No-one – she died as 'the Virgin Queen'.                   |
| 9  | Who was Elizabeth's 'Master of the Horse'?                                   | Robert Dudley (Earl of Leicester)                          | 24 | What happened to Elizabeth in 1562 that increased the pressure on her to marry?             | She contracted smallpox                                    |
| 10   | Who was Elizabeth's 'spymaster'?   | Francis Walsingham   | 25 | Why was marrying a foreign suitor preferable for some members of her Privy Council?         | It could form a powerful alliance.                         |
| 11   | Which Privy Council member rose to prominence in court through his dancing?  | Christopher Hatton   | 26 | Why was not marrying preferable for Elizabeth in terms of foreign affairs?                  | The option of alliance kept her out of wars.               |
| 12   | Name the two Puritan members of the Privy Council.                           | Dudley & Walsingham  | 27 | To control her Privy Council, Elizabeth wanted them to disagree over matters. What is this? | Creating factions  |
| 13   | How was Elizabeth able to ensure her Privy Council did not overrule her?     | Using faction.   | 28 | Elizabeth promoted individuals, giving wealth and power. They then owed her. What is this?  | System of patronage  |
| 14   | Why was parliament primarily used?   | To pass laws or introduce new taxes                        | 29 | Who is the person who is next in line to inherit the throne?                                | An heir  |
| 15   | Which trusted councillors died in 1588, 1590 and 1591 respectively?          | Dudley, Walsingham, Hatton.                                | 30 | What was the licence that gave a person sole right to do, make, use or sell something?      | A patent   |

| Knc | wledge outcomes: Elizabethan England – Life i                                  | in Elizabethan times                                     |    |   |   |
|-----|--|--|----|---|---|
| 1   | Who were the well-born families who owned land but did not have titles?        | The gentry   | 16 | What system of hierarchy did the seating in the theatre visibly represent?                  | The Great Chain of Being                              |
| 2   | Why were literacy rates increasing rapidly under Elizabeth?                    | Introduction of grammar schools                          | 17 | Who was the most famous Elizabethan playwright?   | William Shakespeare                                   |
| 3   | What was the Statutes of Apparel (1574)?                                       | Laws strictly controlling the clothes people could wear. | 18 | How did Elizabeth increase her support through theatre?                                     | Patronage (gentry) and propaganda (poor)              |
| 4   | What fashion did the gentry wear around their necks?                           | Ruffs  | 19 | Which two Privy Council members patronised acting companies?                                | Robert Dudley (Leicester's men) and Lord Chamberlain  |
| 5   | What name was given to the building boom and new architecture under Elizabeth? | 'Great Rebuilding'                                       | 20 | Elizabeth used propaganda to create a cult of personality around her. What was this called? | Cult of Gloriana.                                     |
| 6   | Which house was built by Elizabeth, the Countess of Shrewsbury in Derbyshire?  | Hardwick Hall  | 21 | Name the three categories (types) of poor inElizabethan England                         | Impotent, able-bodied, and idle poor                  |
| 7   | Where did the Renaissance begin?   | Italy  | 22 | What was a homeless person who wondered from place-to-place begging and stealing called?    | Vagabond  |
| 8   | Which two new developments acted as status symbols for houses?                 | Glass windows and chimneys                               | 23 | What collapsed in the 1550s, making poverty worse?  | The woollen market (asNetherlands ruled by Spain) |
| 9   | How many purpose-built theatres were there when Elizabeth became Queen?        | None   | 24 | What was enclosure?   | Turning arable land into pastoral (sheep farming)     |
| 10  | Who disapproved of the theatre on religious grounds?                           | Puritans   | 25 | What increased pressure on finite resources leading to more poverty?                        | Population growth – rose by 43% between 1550-1600     |
| 11  | How did the government begin to control actors from 1572?                      | Made it law that all bands of actors must be licensed    | 26 | What did the 1601 Poor Law introduce?   | A 'poor rate' to help the'deserving poor'         |
| 12  | Why were theatres built in a circular shape?                                   | If they failed, they could be used as bear-baiting pits  | 27 | What were Elizabeth's adventurers and privateers collectively known as?                     | Sea Dogs  |
| 13  | Who was not allowed to perform in theatres?                                    | Women  | 28 | Name a short-term negative outcome of overseas activity under Elizabeth                     | It inflamed Anglo-Spanish relations                   |
| 14  | The cheapest theatre tickets cost one penny. What was this area known as?      | 'The pit'. This was where the 'groundlings' would stand. | 29 | What were the Americas known as in the Elizabethan era?                                     | The 'New World'                                       |
| 15  | Where did the wealthier members watch the plays?                               | Up in the galleries                                      | 30 | Who circumnavigated the globe between 1577 and 1580?  | Sir Francis Drake                                     |

| Knowledge outcomes: Elizabethan England – Trouble at home and abroad |  |   |    |  |   |
|--|--|---|----|--|---|
| 1  | What is Elizabeth's religious settlement often referred to as?                     | The 'Middle Way' – due to its religious compromise.       | 16 | What were prayer meetings, where the Bible was discussed and sermons said, called?             | Prophesying   |
| 2  | What year did Elizabeth pass her Act of Supremacy?                                 | 1559  | 17 | Which Puritans died in 1588 and 1590 respectively?   | Dudley and Walsingham                                 |
| 3  | Which law clarified Elizabethan religious beliefs?                                 | Act of Uniformity   | 18 | How was Mary, Queen of Scots related to Elizabeth?   | Cousin  |
| 4  | Name two ways Elizabeth compromised to please the Catholics.                       | Priests wore traditional vestments; 'Supreme Governor'    | 19 | Which powerful country did Mary, Queen of Scots initially have strong relations with?          | France – she was married to the previous King.        |
| 5  | What were you called if you failed to attend the Church in England?                | Recusant  | 20 | When in England, why was Mary moved around from safe house to safe house?                      | To prevent her becoming the focus for plots           |
| 6  | What was set up from 1568, aiming to train English Catholics as missionaries?      | Schools for seminary priests                              | 21 | Which rebellion/plot occurred before Elizabeth's excommunication?                              | The Northern Rebellion (1569)                         |
| 7  | What happened to Elizabeth in 1570?  | She was excommunicated                                    | 22 | Who was behind the 1571 plot to assassinate Elizabeth and crown Mary, Queen of Scots?          | Roberto di Ridolfi                                    |
| 8  | Which Catholic sect came to England from 1580 under Edmund Campion?                | Jesuits   | 23 | Which plot, involving coded letters, led to the death of Mary, Queen of Scots?                 | The Babington Plot                                    |
| 9  | What happened to Edmund Campion in 1581?   | He was tortured and executed for treason                  | 24 | When was Mary, Queen of Scots executed?  | 1587  |
| 10   | Why was the Pope arguably to blame for the collapse of Catholicism in England?     | The excommunication forced Catholics to conform or revolt | 25 | How did Philip II respond to the execution of Mary, Queen of Scots?                            | He sent the Spanish Armada (1588) to invade           |
| 11   | How did the Puritans have the 'ear of the Queen'?                                  | Dudley and Walsingham were two Puritan close advisors     | 26 | Which rebellion exacerbated the tensions between Spain and England?                            | Rebellion in the Netherlands.                         |
| 12   | Which Archbishop did Elizabeth fall out with over prophesying?                     | Edmund Grindal  | 27 | Why did the murder of Mary, Queen of Scots, justify an invasion attempt from Philip?           | Divine Right meant that the war was a 'just war'.     |
| 13   | Which Archbishop repressed prophesying's?  | John Whitgift   | 28 | Who did Philip appoint to lead the Armada and why was this a problem>                          | Duke of Medina Sidonialacked experience at sea.   |
| 14   | Which MP was imprisoned for proposing 'Bill and Book' in parliament?               | Anthony Cope – the MP forBanbury                      | 29 | How did the English break the tight crescent formation of the Spanish Armada at Calais         | Sending fireships filled with tar and oil set on fire |
| 15   | Which Puritan had their hand cut off for writing a pamphlet criticising Elizabeth? | William Stubbs  | 30 | Where did the great battle take place, which caused the Spanish to flee north around Scotland? | Battle of Gravelines                                  |