Use of Photographs

We like to celebrate students' achievements through various forms of technology, including social media, the school website, publications and school newsletters. We like to attach photographs of the events being celebrated and this may include student photos, for example sports teams. We will not include student's surnames in social media postings.

As part of school administration, the Academy uses photos of our pupils in our electronic systems, in classroom displays; from time-to-time photos and film may be taken as part of a lesson or project.
